Wulfgar and Treannah offer for Mudthaw

Baron Wulfgar Silfrahaar and Baroness Theodora Bryennissa, called Treannah have volunteered to submit a bid to autocrat Mudthaw. The bid will be considered by the officers at the January meeting. They will need lots of help; please volunteer.

Food and Cooking A&S Night

Galefridus has scheduled our first Food and Cooking A&S night
6 January, 2017 at 7pm - 10pm
Montville Township First Aid Squad
137 Changebridge Rd, Montville, NJ 07045

An evening of playing with and tasting medieval and renaissance recipes. Bring a sample of your favorite historical dish! A kitchen will be available, so food can be prepared on site. Since we're meeting on the western Christian holiday of Epiphany/Twelfth Night, folks may want to use that as a starting point for researching recipes.

If you're planning on cooking on site, please bring your own cookware. The site is dry.

Food and Cooking A&S - Magister Galefridus

Our second gathering for playing with and tasting medieval and renaissance recipes. The theme will be announced -- we'll brainstorm about it at our 6 January gathering. A kitchen will be available, so food can be prepared on site, but you're planning on doing so, please bring your own cookware.

Pennsic Planning and Beautification—Mistress Elizabeth

At the same time and location, the Pennsic Camp Moms (Elizabeth and Vika) will host two relevant workshops:

1) We will hold an important Pennsic Camp planning meeting at 1:00 pm.

- The agenda will update folks on projects discussed last Pennsic and begun in the fall.
- This is the place to propose additional ideas, projects, and upsets, resolve them, and recruit help.

2) We will continue Phase 2 of the Pennsic camp decoration project, which is making large banners to decorate the mead hall. Elizabeth will have large banners constructed and drawn out for people to be doing basic painting. If others are more comfortable sewing than painting, one work station will be a large applique project, with instruction provided as we work.

We will sit down to lunch after the planning meeting. Please bring a potluck item to share. We will eat together as we have at past Solars and all are encouraged to bring stories to share.

Join us! We will make Settmour Swamp's Pennsic camp shiny and welcoming to all!

Baroness & Baron Letter

Greetings Settmour!

We hope the magic and the thrill of the holiday season stretches on, bringing you peace, health, and happiness. May the New Year be bright and filled with camaraderie, and know we look forward to seeing you, and whatever new projects you are working on. We delight in your prowess, your garb, your cooking, and we will continue to welcome you at our upcoming events, workshops, practices in the New Year as our time as Baron and Baroness starts to come to the end.

It was wonderful to see so many of you at the Holiday Swamp Stomp and officer meeting. The times we get together reminds us of how prodigious the people of this Barony are. Our own Halldora created an amazing day board that was accompanied with fabulous dishes from all who joined us. As the snow fell the holiday cheer of friendship was in abundance, and we appreciated all who came out to spend the day, working on projects or just talking about the things going on in your lives.

At the officer meeting many great plans were discussed and are in the planning stages. Magister Galefridus Peregrinus has started establishing period cooking workshops and a day is being coordinated with Mistress Elizabeth Talbot to create banners for the Pennsic Mead hall. Mudthaw will be in March, there is much to do, please step up and lend a hand. It will again be at the lovely Saints Nicholas, Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Roseland NJ. The next heirs for the Barony, Lord Jonathan Miles and Lady Teresa Ana Perez will be invested and much gaiety and festivity will occur with your help. The Black Gryphon Inn will open it's doors in April, due to the site being under renovations. This means that choosing our Bardic Champion will be done by our heirs, so we hope you will raise up your voices to them as you have us. Work on putting a bid together to host our beloved Kingdom's Spring Crown Tournament is also underway. It has been many years since Settmour Swamp has hosted this auspicious event, upon which hangs the future Prince and Princess of the East. If accepted by their Highnesses it is with anticipation we hope you will join us in creating the pageantry and fanfare to deserving of the day.

At the close of another year we gratefully pause to thank everyone who helps to make this Barony so incredibly welcoming and a family. You are one of them so here goes... thank you and have a very Happy New Year!

Baron Erec and Baroness Jehannine

Meet the Baronial Heirs

By the will of their Majesties, Brion and Ana, Rex and Regina of these Eastern lands (and with no shortage of votes from the populace) we will join in your service soon. The Investiture is planned for March 25th, A.S. 51, at Mudthaw. We hope to see you all there!

In conversations with their Excellencies, Jehannine de Flandres and Erec Le Claire, we have been made to feel like the investiture will be our day, and about us. In turn we have tried to be deferential and to make it a day of celebration of their reign and all the hard work that went with it. This transition highlights an important part about what makes The Swamp great. We are surrounded by people who want to help, who step up, do, and give. These are not people of the spotlight, but who understand that when the spotlight is on; it is time to perform. As his Excellency is fond of saying,

"We need to make this stuff look good."

We are equally reminded, during a conversation with our great friends Sir Mitchel MacBain and Mistress Jessa D'avendale, about a wonderful quote attributed to Countess Elspeth Keyf of Neddingham (highly paraphrased):

"We arrive and we behold the magic in all its glory. It inspires us and we become citizens of this magical world. Eventually though, the magic begins to fade, and it falls to those of us who have enjoyed it for so long to make it for those who have only just arrived."

Our outgoing Seneschale, Lady Charis Accipiter, told me about her first event. Having the freedom to come to an event, on her own, at a young age, and to make her own choices, and to explore her independence, must have played a role. She walked into the hall at feast time. The lights were off, each table lit by candles. She was overwhelmed by the ambiance, she was transported, she fell in love with our society and that has been a memory that she has carried with her ever since.

Lady Teresa Ana Perez and Lord Jonathan Miles

The Bard once wrote:

*Old men forget; yet all shall be forgot,
But he'll remember, with advantages,
What feats he did that day. Then shall our names,
Familiar in his mouth as household words*

The memory of our deeds are partnered with the memory of the faces of those who were with us, and this too is an important part of the magic. We make friends and family in this society that we keep with us for a long time.

So we find ourselves at the threshold of a new adventure, equal parts joy and terror as we are fond of saying! Our son doesn't see any terror, though I am sure he will ache with embarrassment at his parents as he grows up during our reign. Though we will play our new roles as best we can, with parts humor and pageantry, this new adventure is a celebration of the Magic that transports us into another world. A world, we hope, is constructed of our favorite parts of history and the history we create for ourselves. Thank you all again for this wonderful honor.

With Love and Service,

Seneschale Notes

It's now official: my warrant has been approved and I'm now officially the seneschale of this beautiful barony. Charis will be deputy and help me learn this position. She has passed on to me the seneschal key (see picture). I only hope that I can fill the position as well as she has done with such grace.

In the November Mudpuppy you can find my introduction, so this month I'll just recount what is happening in the barony. We had an enjoyable Swamp Stomp earlier this month, ably fed by Halldora and supplemented with yummy potluck contributions.

It may still be December as I write this, but we're working on Mudthaw, scheduled for March 25th at the same location as last year, the Greek Orthodox church in Livingston. This Mudthaw will be the investiture of our new baron and baroness. We need someone to cook the feast. Those interested in serving in this way should contact Wulfgaar or Trehannah.

A new A&S get together is planned for January 6th and February 4th (see page 2 and page 3). We often hold practices for fencing, fighting, and general A&S; this one will be for cooking. It gives the cooks and food folks among us a place to try out new recipes, talk with others about what they are experimenting with, and get advice on whatever they are struggling with. The Feb. 4 cooking day will be combined with banner making and Pennsic camp beautification projects. The site where this is taking place is large enough for people to come sew and do other A&S projects. See the article on this venture in this issue, or visit the Barony's facebook page for more details.

We are working at submitting a bid for the Spring Crown Tourney, but don't know if our bid will be chosen. Black Gryphon Inn is scheduled late this year because of renovations to the site; it will be held April 22nd.

It's not too soon to start thinking about Quest—a nice alternative to meditating on snow and ice. We need someone to be the autocrat, to cook the feast, and to plan the quest. Talk with me about it if you are interested. When I autocrated this event several years ago, I found it was not difficult to plan since most of the schedule is already laid out, and most of the work consists of checking with people that they are doing their parts. We now hold the event at the Clinton Elks, and this site makes the planning easier. Autocrating this event is not intimidating, as Jonathan Miles learned last year and wrote about for a recent Mudpuppy.

It is a truth universally acknowledged that with volunteer groups, 80 percent of the work is done by 20 percent of the people. We'd love to have more people involved—it's a good way to get to know people and feel like you are actively contributing. And we will work to make sure it is a positive experience for all. We need a webminister, for example, to redesign our website. Ursula is updating the site, but we need someone with more knowledge of web design. Could that be you?

Seneschale Notes

Come join us at the next officers' meeting, scheduled for 7:30 pm at Jonathan Miles' and Teresa Ana Perez's house on February 11. You don't need to be an officer to help us plan upcoming events. Contact me for the address.

It looks like we have an exciting Spring planned. Yours in service,

Lady Judith bas Rabbi Mendel

BGI Black Gryphon Inn

Preliminary Planning for BGI 2017 has started!

Due to site availability, BGI will be held on April 22nd this year.

The theme is the spring opening of the meadhall to welcome our new Baron and Baroness to the canton.

At this time I am looking for someone willing to run troll.

Eventually will need setup crew and a clean-up crew.

If you are interested in helping let me know.

Baron Alexander Macgregor,
Event Steward

Event Location

Kiddie Keep Well Camp (Schirber Dining Hall)

A link to the East Kingdom event announcement will be added as soon as the link is available.

Passing of the Seneschal Key

Lady Charis passed the seneschal key to Lady Judith at the December Yule stomp.

The Seneschal Key of the (then) Shire of Settmour Swamp was made for (then) Lady Ursula, in the early 1980s, by Shadowmaker, a master sword maker. This key has passed from seneschal to seneschal for the past 35+ years.

Nutley Fight Practice by Ioannes Serpentius

Master Ioannes Aurelius Serpentius, Prince of the East Kingdom, took photos at the Nutley Fight Practice.

This was the final Nutley practice for the year, and was probably the most epic practice that I've been to in a few years. There were FOUR dukes, EIGHT knights, TWO sitting princes, and FIVE of the top unbelted fighters of the East Kingdom. There were also many guests from Aethelmearc, my wonderful Princess Honig, a film crew, and a crowd of onlookers. The film crew was following Brynhildr Ansvarsdottir to capture an audition video.

Chamberlain Needed

Our current Chamberlain, Lord Jonathan Miles, is also our Baronial Heir Apparent.

Lord Jonathan needs to find a deputy Chamberlain to train and take over the office as soon as possible.

Please contact our Chamberlain, Lord Jonathan, at jonathanbayles@gmail.com

The office duties are as follows (from Lord Jonathan):

- Maintain a time line of swamp events where gear from the locker will be needed.
- Speak with the autocrats, martial-ate, and other activity organizers prior to the event to determine what they will need.
- Set the expectations of how the gear will be moved to and from the event in plain terms. If you are moving it, commit to that. If they are moving it, let them know where and when to show up, and what kind of vehicle to bring. There is no requirement to move the actual gear, and remember that moving things is easy; being a good and accountable facilitator is the key strategy.
- Either bring or facilitate the transport of the needed gear to the event in a timely fashion, and see the gear safely home at the conclusion of the event. Again, do not be afraid to ask for help, no one expects you to move all the gear by yourself.
- Inform the officers of the Barony when anything is not returned, lost, or damaged.
- Respond to the monthly report emails from the officers' list with anything relevant to the gear, its status, or needs for new gear.
- Attend monthly business meetings and offer your vote and experience to the Baronial processes.
- Graciously receive any donations to the Barony and place into storage, thank them sincerely.
- The most important part of the job, to my mind, is to give everyone a sense of confidence that the gear will be onsite and on time.

Webmaster Needed

The Swamp needs a new Web Master to maintain our Baronial webpages.

Lord Dalec Bolotnikov has maintained the Swamp web pages for many years. It is time for another to take up the roll of Web Master.

Please contact our Seneschale, Lady Judith - mcmendelsohn@optimum.net

The East Kingdom has established an unofficial standard design, preferably in WordPress and offers some help pages and assistance. One possibility would be to redesign the Barony page in WordPress to comply with the Kingdom preferences.

<http://helpdesk.eastkingdom.org/>

Lord Dalek described the current Barony Webpage as follows:

The Barony of Settmour Swamp website (<http://settmourswamp.eastkingdom.org/>) does not completely comply with the East Kingdom suggested standard design. A step was taken to get there, but the standardization is not complete. For example, instead of hundreds of individual pages, there are things like header and footer pages, and arrays designed to hold some data.

Required Skills: proficiency with html5, novice understanding of php

Chronicler Notes

The November issue of the Mudpuppy is dedicated to the new Food and Cooking A&S gathering.

I have offered to update the calendar on the Barony webpage. Awaiting a warrant as a deputy webminister.

Please note the need for new officers and consider volunteering to help organize and run our Barony.

I am seeking a deputy chronicler. If you would like to learn how to be a snoopy reporter, a nitpicky editor, and develop skills with MS Publisher, this is your opportunity! Please let me know if you would like to help with any aspect of the Mudpuppy.

Feel free to contact me with ideas for an article. I am happy to help.

Baroness Ursula of North Woods,

Chronicler

I see the newsletter as capturing the history of the Barony of Settmour Swamp. By comparison, FaceBook is like a cocktail party where chaotic information floats rapidly by and can't be found a week later. We are after all a history group. The newsletter captures the HISTORY of the HISTORY group.

Note: all artwork, photos and creative articles are used with permission. Each item is marked with a number. The numbers refer to the list of contributors which is shown on the last page of this issue.
