To the Populace of our most noble Swamp do we Alexander and Rhiannon send greetings

Spring has returned to the Swamp, and with it our Flemington practice is back in full swing. Archery returned after its winter hiatus this past practice, and should be going on each practice, weather permitting, and based on the availability of our marshals. Heavy weapons fighting is going on and hopefully we will have fencing and thrown weapons as well. We are also looking for people who would be willing to run some workshops and help with making Queens favors. If you would like to teach or help with the favors please contact us. We are looking to do a Pennsic project day/Pennsic Archery practice/picnic on Sunday June 13th. We need to confirm with the church and more information will be in next month's issue.

On May 15 we will be having a Baronial road trip to the Metropolitan Museum of Art to view two special exhibits, "The art of Illumination The Limbourg Brothers and the Belles Heures of Jean de France, Duc de Berry" and "The Mourners: Medieval Tomb Sculptures from the Court of Burgundy" and if time permits other areas of the museum. As we did in our past trip to The Met, we plan on getting there early, meeting at the museum around 10:00 am. Our first priority will be the "The art of Illumination" exhibit followed by "The Mourners". Of course everyone is free to explore the museum at their own pace based on their interests. If you are planning to come, please let us know so we know to look for you. I will be posting to the Swamp e-mail list trying to match up people willing to drive and people who need a ride. We do hope many of you come out to the Met with us.

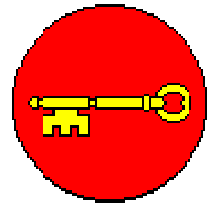

One sure sign it's spring in the Swamp is that Quest preparations are going on. Our Autocrat Lord Eric the Wandering Horseman, Quest author Don Orlando and our head cook Lady Charis are all looking for volunteers to help. If you would like to offer your services contact Lord Eric and he will get you in touch with the appropriate person. Quest is always a fun, relaxing weekend with something going on for everyone. We do hope to see many of you there, if not for the full weekend, then maybe for a day or so.

With spring also comes our annual Pennsic Pre-reg reminders. If you are going to Pennsic and camping with the Barony you must pre-register for war. Mail in registration ends May 15th on line registration ends June 15th. We will be holding a camp meeting directly after Baronial court at Quest to review all things Pennsic and to select this year's Party theme and party planner. While the Party takes place in Swamp camp it is the Barony's party. Just because you camp some place else, does not mean you can't help select the theme or help with the planning. So let's start thinking of themes and we can review them at Quest. If anyone would like to be considered for this year's Camp Mommy/Slum lord (sorry Camp Daddy just does not work) please contact us or our Seneschal before the May business meeting. We will be making the selection at the May meeting.

It is hard to believe it has been three years since our investiture as Baron and Baroness of this magnificent Barony. We have enjoyed every minute of it and it has been a great honor traveling the Kingdom representing the best Barony in the Known World. According to our Policies and Procedures we have a four-year term and we need to announce in our third year if we plan to put our names in for another term. We would like to now officially announce our intention to seek a second term as Baron and Baroness. Our Seneschal Lord Erec L'Claire is charged with the task of overseeing the process. He has further information on it in this issue. If you have any questions on this please do not hesitate to contact us or Lord Erec.

In Service to the Barony of Settmour Swamp and the East Kingdom,
Alexander and Rhiannon

From the Baronial Seneschal:

Call for Candidates for Baron and Baroness

Hail and well met Lords, Ladies and subjects of Settmour Swamp.

The term of Baron Alexander and Baroness Rhiannon is nearing its end. They are interested in running again.

Know that if they are not opposed, their term will be for two more years, and we will not have to do a polling. If they are opposed, we will have to do a polling, and the person or persons selected by the Crown will have a four-year term.

If there is anyone interested in running against them, you must submit your intent to the seneschal as soon as possible. Deadline for letters of intent is June 29, 2010.

New Business

Jehannine and Baron Alexander proposed a pick nick/project workshop for Pennsic preparation on June 13, 2010 at the Flemington Practice. It was agreed to be a good idea. Who is going to head this?

Jehannine brought to the group's attention that the youth loaner gear is taking up a lot of space in the church shed and asked if the gear can be moved to the Chancellor's site. Orlando volunteered to take the gear because he believes there is a Youth Marshal in training who may be ready to begin youth activities soon.

Trixie asked for $20 to purchase supplies for the office of the Exchequer. The vote was unanimously in favor. Motion passed.

A proposed annual budget for the office of the Exchequer and the office of the Chronicler was discussed. A vote will take place next meeting after further discussion.

With the approval of the policy change, Baron Alexander brought to the group's attention that there is only 1 more year left in the current Baron and Baroness' term. With that, the officers decided to begin the process immediately for renewal/polling. Erec L'Claire to contact Elizabeth Hawkwood to present a special edition of the Mudpuppy immediately to open the nomination process for any who wish to run for Baron and/or Baroness. Two further publications will take place in May and June. The cut-off date was determined to be July 15th. During this period, and before the actual polling, two meet and greets will be scheduled provided that other candidates choose to run. Should the current Baron and Baroness be unopposed, they may be renewed for a 2-year term by acclimation of the officers.

Future Meetings:

- Wednesday May 12, 2010 – Orlando and Charis's Home
- Wednesday June 9, 2010 – Erec's Home
- Wednesday July 14, 2010 – Trixie and Tammi's Home

Meeting Closed 9:30 PM

Officer Reports Presented at the April Business Meeting

Herald

We had a Baronial Court at Mudthaw, run by me with the able assistance of Lord Erec le Clair. The next Baronial Court will be at Quest. Also at Mudthaw, the heraldic consulting table attracted a large number of Swamp folks looking for registered names and heraldry. Miguel de Normandie, a former Sinking Tower of many years past, donated a large collection of heraldry books to the Barony. Since the value of these books is considerable, I am going to look up the market value for the books on line so we can get him a donation letter for the IRS for his 2010 taxes. When I get a break I will post the inventory of the Barony's new library to the Yahoo Group. I'll be having a heraldry workshop at the April 25th Flemington practice. I've already received a nice number of RSVPs. Kudos to the TOAD household for its excellent heraldic display on the Mudthaw fencing field. If you didn't see it or haven't seen pictures of it, it was splendid, with lots of flowy banners and heraldic dags on the sun fly.

All had a wonderful time and were very impressed at the warm and wonderful welcome with which you all received them. Also some Gold Key was used at Mudthaw, made very easy by the current "filing" system. :: I have had the pleasure of both speaking to some of them in person and on the phone and they are all lovely people. :: So, kudos to you all for being so great to the Newbies, as is our venerable Swamp tradition!

Meetings page updated, calendar updated, front page of web site updated, events page updated. Our next listed event is Quest, and the information that went out to the Swamp List regarding the trip to the Metropolitan Museum of art has been added, with a link from the front page and the calendar page.

Upcoming Exhibit at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York,

The Art of Illumination: The Limbourg Brothers and the Belles Heures of Jean de France, Duc de Berry, March 2, 2010 – June 13, 2010,. Robert Lehman Wing

The Belles Heures (1405–1408/9) of Jean de Berry, a treasure of The Cloisters collection, is one of the most celebrated and lavishly illustrated manuscripts in this country. Because it is currently unbound, it is possible to exhibit all of its illuminated pages as individual leaves, a unique opportunity never to be repeated. The exhibition will elucidate the manuscript, its artists—the young Franco-Netherlandish Limbourg Brothers—and its patron, Jean de France, duc de Berry. A select group of precious objects from the same early-fifteenth-century courtly milieu will place the manuscript in the context of the patronage of Jean de Berry and his royal family, the Valois.
