THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF
THE BARONY OF SETTMOUR SWAMP

Greetings to the Swamp from Baroness Rhiannon and Baron Alexander.

Wow! I'll say that again. Wow!

What a great and glorious Mudthaw we just had. Everything went well, everyone was happy and had a good time, the rain held off, the feast was phenomenal. This Barony rocks. There are some specific thank-yous we would like to give, but we will leave the rest to the gentles who were in charge. Don Orlando Sforza and Lady Constanza Maria Colonna, with assistance from the Honorable Lord Owynn Greenwood made a superb team and ran this monster event like a well oiled siege machine. They made it look easy and effortless and we know it's far from either. Thank you for all your hard work, from planning to execution (no, you bloodthirsty gits, not that kind of execution!). It was a whopping success.

And the FOOD! Oh, my gosh! It was fabulous, superlative, nirvana. Thank you Lord Yagyu na Kagetoki (Rookie) for a feast truly fit for royalty. I (Rhiannon) have cooked many feasts and I kneel at your feet in praise of your talents. Your first large event and the food was delicious, period, theme appropriate and on time, your kitchen was efficient, your staff happy, and you were calm and in control throughout. Well done!

There is a task that I would do myself, however, since I need to always be in Kingdom Court at the time it needs doing, I entrust this task to very few. I would like to personally thank Baroness Ursala of the Northwoods for setting up High table according to my OCD specifics and then putting up with my unnecessary but unavoidable tweaking of the details.

Congratulations are in order for the newest members of our Baronial Orders: Lady Cassandra de Matisse and the Honorable Lady Emmeline Patterson, joined the Ivory Towers; Lord Erich Hundeman – Iron Towers; and Lady Caterina Giocchini, Karin Jacobsdottir, and Lady Constanza – Bronze Towers. Vivas! Vivas! Vivas!

Next on our busy Swamp schedule is The Medieval Seder on May 5th run by Judith bas Rabbi Mendel. The appropriate (but not strictly Kosher) feast will be prepared by Lady Charis Accipiter. This will be a very educational as well as enjoyable event. If you miss it, you'll be sorry.

You'll be sorrier still if you miss Quest. So don't. Come join Us at our annual and eternal search for Wit and Wisdom, May 25-28. The long awaited and eagerly anticipated "Quest the Musical" will happen on Sunday. Rhiannon is writing and running the Quest which will have a musical theme. She is not actually writing a musical, but it will have music and dance and some romance and whimsy, so we hope your expectations will be met. The weekend will be overflowing with other fun things to see and do, as well: the Baronial Championships – Heavy Weapons, Archery, Throne Weapons on Saturday, the Bardic Championship on Saturday evening after the feast and Fencing and Arts and Sciences on Sunday. And of course, there will be merchants. The Event Steward is Erec leClare, the Head Cook is Willa. Please contact them if you have a little time to spare over the course of the weekend to pitch in and help with any of the numerous jobs and tasks that need to be done. Contact Rhiannon if you want to be a Quest Obstacle.

Pennsic will be here sooner than we think, so register your place in Swamp Camp with Cooper's Lake Campground as soon as you can. Baron Alexander will once again dedicate his time and effort to being Land Agent but needs someone to be his helper and apprentice. Next year someone will have to take over and it would be best to learn the ropes beforehand. Elizabeth Talbot has volunteered to be Camp Mommy again but could also use some relief help. We know it's your vacation, but it's everyone's vacation, so we all need to do our part so everyone can relax and have some fun.

Speaking of fun, doing this job has been fun. Being given this responsibility has been challenging and rewarding. But soon it will be someone else's turn to step up as the Baronial Head(s) of this fantastic group. Alexander and I will be stepping down in one year at next Mudthaw. If you would like to be considered for this position, send your letter of intent to us and our Seneschal before the May Baronial business meeting (the second Wednesday of the month). All candidates will be introduced to the Populace at Quest Baronial Court on Sunday, after the Quest. Best of luck to all who apply.

In Service to our Barony and the Kingdom of the East,

Rhiannon and Alexander

Medieval Seder - Why is this night different from all other nights?

May 5th, 2012 Milltown, NJ

Come and learn how Amram the Gaon created the first complete haggadah for Passover. We will be using his ceremony as we take part in this educational event: a seder from northern France in c. 950. Ask the four questions, partake of the foods of a medieval seder, and decide for yourself whether it would be enough for you.

The seder will be led by Dom. Galefridus Peregrinus, with commentary and explanation by Lady Judith bas Rabbi Mendel. A delicious feast will be prepared for us by Lady Charis Accipiter. The food will be appropriate to the time, but not strictly kosher.

Because of SCA regulations, participants need to provide their own wine for the ceremony, but we will supply sufficient unfermented grape juice for everyone. The restrictions of Passover cooking mean there will be limited options for vegetarians and vegans. The site does not permit open flames. We ask that everyone dress in some attempt at clothing from before the 17th century. (Contact the event steward if you need help with this request.)

Menu:

- Celery
- Endive
- Charosis (apples, walnuts, figs, pomegranates, horseradish, black Radish, ginger, cumin, pepper, grape juice/ vinegar)
- Medieval Matzah (flour, water)
- Roasted Eggs
- Roast Lamb
- Chicken stewed in dates, figs and spices
- Asparagus with lemon and garlic
- Mushrooms in oil and cinnamon
- Fruit Compote
- Pletzlach (honey brittle)
- Grape Juice

For questions about the feast or concerns about dietary needs, contact:
Lady Charis Accipiter

The Quest for Wit and Wisdom XXIX - Quest the Musical

May 25th, 2012 - May 28th, 2012

Neshanic Station, NJ

Welcome to our little village in the English countryside. Great news, you are just in time for our Mayday Fair! There will be festivities and merry making for three days so come and eat, drink and stay a while.

Champions:

Celebratory tournaments will be hosted by the Baron and Baroness to determine their champions in heavy weapons, rapier, archery and thrown weapons. Also there will be youth combat for those not yet of age.

So too will be a contest of arts and sciences wherein their Excellencies will choose their champion of arts by aid of populace vote so come by and gaze upon the wonders made by hands. Bring anything you've made and would like to enter, there are no categories. .

After the feast we challenge you to gather around our fire pit and entertain us with your songs and stories. The best of all will be named our Bardic Champion.

As in years past there will be a brewing competition as well so please come share your skill.

Feast:

Come ye on this fair may day to lay upon the green sward in the happy grove and thereto a great feast on Saturday evening prepared by Willa will be served. The feast will be limited to 100 gentles so we ask you to please register early. Scroll a bit for the menu.

Feast menu:

- A salad along with bread, fruit and cheese will be presented at the beginning of the table.
- A chicken with an orange citrus sauce
- A braised beef with herbs
- Chickpea soup with sage and other herbs (vegetarian)
- A fresh herbed spring quiche (vegetarian)
- Sautéed mushrooms with brown sugar (vegetarian)

Quest:

For those looking to use their wits, we offer you: Quest the Musical. It promises to be fun and challenging for teams of three. Three shall be the number thou shalt have in thy team, and the number of the teammates shall be three. Four shalt thou not have, though two you may if need be. Five is right out. The Quest will begin at 1 PM on Sunday. Childrens teams are welcome but they must be accompanied by an adult.

Site Rules:

The camping area will be open from 4 PM Friday until 11:30 AM Monday.

The site is Damp which means beer, wine, and mead are permissible but please no distilled liquor. Running water is not available on site so please bring enough bottled water to last the weekend. Port-a-Johns, and dumpsters for garbage will also be provided. In addition to feast gear, you will need chairs and a table or a blanket to sit on for the feast. There will be a large, central fire pit for socializing. Pets are welcome so long as they are quiet, leashed and cleaned up after. As with children, we insist that you supervise your pets at all times. Gentles with overly loud and/or aggressive pets will be asked to remove the pets from site.

Children: We insist that you supervise your children at all times. Anyone under the age of eighteen who is not with a parent must be accompanied by an adult and must present a consent form signed by the parent and listing the parent contact information. If a minor does not have a blue membership card, a minor waiver must be signed by the parent/legal guardian and presented at Troll. Copies of this waiver are available on-line at <http://www.sca.org/docs/waivers.html> and will be available at the event. Site tokens for children will be hospital wristbands.

Vehicles: All automobiles on site must display the auto tag from their rear-view mirrors at all times. These will be provided by Troll upon arrival.

After-Hours Arrival: Every person arriving onsite after troll has closed please leave your name, cell phone number, and license plate of your vehicle on the clipboard at the troll tent when you arrive. Please see troll first thing the next morning to complete your sign-in and receive your car tag and site token.

Baronial Road Trip

Baronial Road trip April 15th -
Valley Shepherd Creamery

On Sunday, April 15th, we are planning a visit to Valley Shepherd Creamery (50 Fairmount Rd., Long Valley, NJ) and want you to join us.

We will meet at the farm at about 12:30 for a 1:00pm tour of their facilities where we will learn about the cheese-making process. The tour will take 90 mins. and includes a cheese tasting at the end. The Creamery has a cheese and gift shop where they sell their own artisanal cheeses and other wares.

We may decide to have a late lunch at one of the several restaurants in the area.

For more information on the Creamery visit their website at www.ValleyShepherd.com.

If the weather is really nasty that day we may reschedule to Sat. April 21. Keep an eye on the yahoo list.

Medieval Seder May 5, 2012

I've found someone to oversee the cleanup after the event, including recruiting people to help: Baroness Ursula.
When we were at Black Gryphon Inn, we checked out the lower hall and kitchen where the event will take place.

Trixie has started working on the music. I've been continuing my matzah experiments, as have some others, and I've been consulting on what options I have. Since I was up at Gould Farm, where I successfully baked the matzah once, I found out what kind of oven they have: Duke electric convection oven. It turns out the baker turned the dial past 500 to a region of the dial where there are no numbers, so exactly how much hotter the oven was is unclear. Does anyone have access to that type of oven in this area?
I have received several checks and pre-registrations in the mail already.

Quest May 25-28, 2012

What about the money? The numbers below are the same as last year. We expect the site cost to be a bit more. What about raising the day rate to $12?

1. Site Hours

Opens 4 pm Friday 25th May
Closes 12 noon Monday 28th May

2. Site Fees

In my event announcement I submitted the following, which is the same as last year. Do you feel that we should charge a little more? It is highly likely the fee for the firemen will be 4000.

Site Fees: (changed by officers from Erec's original proposal)

$5.00 Friday night

$15 Saturday day trip rate adult [18+]

$15 Sunday day trip rate adult [18+]

Monday is free

$30.00 Adult Max site fee

$5 minor [6-17] per day rate

Children under 6 are free

All children must be accompanied and supervised at all times by an adult.

$65.00 Immediate Family (Parents and Children under 18) Max site fee

$5.00 Adult Non SCA member surcharge

Feast: $7.00 Onboard fee for the feast

3. I propose the following text to be added to the event announcement:

Vehicles: All automobiles on site must display the auto tag from their rear-view mirrors at all times. These will be provided by Troll upon arrival.

4. After-Hours Arrival: Every person arriving onsite after troll has closed please leave your name, cell phone number, and license plate of your vehicle on the clipboard at the troll tent when you arrive.

Please see troll first thing the next morning to complete your sign-in and receive your car tag and site token.

Please let me know your opinion as soon as possible.

We need to make sure and use the wrist/ankle bands for tagging children

Pennsic 7/27/12-8/12/12

Barony is registered. Alexander is land agent. Has volunteer to help run camp – Elizabeth Talbot. Camp forms and tent layout. Will need to replace shower and shower structure. Alexander to research.

Many Hands Make Light Work

Running barony, canton or an event like Twelfth Night, Mudthaw, Quest, or even Black Gryphon Inn takes a lot of work. There are many positions where volunteers are needed. From decorating the hall and setting up chairs, to cleaning up after the event, the more people who pitch in, the better the event is for everyone. Volunteers are needed to help with events and as officers. For more information on how you can help out, please contact Emeline Patterson: seneschal@settmourswamp.eastkingdom.org.
