THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF
THE BARONY OF SETTMOUR SWAMP

Greetings to All the Swamp from Rhiannon and Alexander!

It's been a busy season for us, so far, and does not look to be slowing down anytime soon. Since this newsletter missed a few issues, we thought we would catch up on the news of the last several months.

In November, Galefridus hosted a second research trip to the NY Public Library and was joined by Judith, Erec and Anna, and Alexander. Everyone had a good time and found much interesting information in their individual areas of interest. Congratulations again to Lady Cassandra for winning the A&S contest at St. Eligius for her bread baking, and Vivat to Don Edmund, for being recognized as a member of the Order of the Silver Crescent at 100 Minutes War.

At Bhakail Yule on Dec. 3, Master Phillip stepped down as Kingdom Seneschal and was made a Baron of the Court. We give him thanks for his service and congratulations.

In January, we joined our friends in Carillion for 12th Night on the 7th and had a wonderful time.

Thanks to Ragnarr the Sunday fighter practice is back at the Edison Moose Lodge. This is an indoor practice. While the actual practice room is not heated, the bar is. Contact Ragnarr at ragnarr1066@yahoo.com for more information and keep checking the Swamp's e-mail list for notices on dates, etc. Thank you Ragnarr for getting the practice back up and running again. We are hopeful that the Edison Moose Lodge will be a center for many activities once the weather warms up.

This month our Canton of Gryphonwald will once again open the doors to the Black Gryphon Inn on February 25th. This year's inn is a German Traveler's Inn. Lady Cassandra will be cooking a delicious feast for the day. We do hope you come out and join us for an afternoon at the Inn.

In addition to the plans for Black Gryphon Inn in February plans are progressing for Mudthaw in March and Judith's Medieval Seder which now has a set date of May 5th.

Lord Erec L'Clare has graciously volunteered to oversee our annual Quest event in May. Willa will be cooking a tasty feast and Rhiannon will run the Quest. We are still searching for new sites for this event and others, so please, keep looking and let us know what you find. We are also in need of sites for practices and workshops. We know they are out there but we need your help to find them.

Keep warm, stay healthy and have a wonderful winter,

Rhiannon and Alexander

It is time friends, to ready yourselves for a journey. Say your apologies to those you have offended. Make out your will. Have a staff and scrip prepared. A pilgrimage is in your future.

But before we leave the lands of our villages provisions must be bought for the coming days. One should have food and drink fit for a traveler. Why not then, delay yourselves a few hours at the Black Gryphon Inn?

Eating and drinking is fine enough but the Canton of Gryphonwald wants patronage to be merry. Do not be too hasty to dismiss a quick game or two, or try your hand in competition:

Modest ratings will be assigned to brews and cordials shared by our patrons.

Show a bit of a your Art or Science, or perhaps cast your vote on whose handiwork is better.

Come gather the sweet fruit of your joyful spring, young maidens. Take up your trowels and shoulder your shovels lads, and join the Barony of Settmour Swamp for the thirty-first thawing of the mud at the Salaam Shrine, in Livingston, NJ on March 24th. Celebrate spring in the Spanish fashion with fighting, fencing, brewing, dancing and the arts. Cut and thrust combatants will not want to miss the Spanish Circle tournament. Youthful laughter will be heard ringing through the hall as activities to captivate the children will be held. Be sure to bring coin as merchants will be selling their goods. A fine Spanish feast of the fresh bounty of the season, cooked by Yagyu no Kagetoki, shall round out the days events.

Our Fair and Gracious Baroness of Settmour Swamp Rhiannon de Carreg Cennen will be holding her Fifth annual subtlety contest. All entries should be presented to Her Excellency at High Table before the feast for judging. This year's theme will be Primavera. to coordinate with the Spanish Spring Feast theme and cuisine of the day. Extra consideration will be given for theme related entries, tastiness, period ingredients and period methods of execution. A list of ingredients should accompany each entry and a short description of how it was made would be helpful. Originality and whimsicality will be looked on with favor as well. Please check in at Troll for logistics of where to store or assemble your creations.

Arts and Sciences Competition will be run by Mistress Jehannine de Flandres. The theme will be: La Primavera.

Childrens Arts and Sciences will be coordinated by Chancellor Minor - Lady Aislinn Chiabach, chancellor-minor@eastkingdom.org and Lady Amy Webbe amywoj@hotmail.com

Brewing Competition will be run by Master Phillip Reed the Factious phillip.reed_tf@yahoo.com

The Annual Mudthaw Baking Competition will be run by Lady Judith bas Rabbi Mendel mcmendelsohn@optimum.net. Entries will be accepted in the following categories for the baking competition: period recipe, bread with spread and dessert bread. Judges will give preference to those entries which could have been made in period and have documentation. Please include a full ingredient list for all entries.

Entries in the period recipe category MUST include documentation.

re: vigils

Medieval Seder              May 5th

We have a time and place for the seder: May 5 (my second choice for a date), at the Milltown American Legion Hall. We will be in the lower hall, which can hold 136 people. I chose it over the upstairs because I think it will be easier to hear what Lon and I say in the smaller room. I discussed the choice with Charis because the kitchen is slightly smaller, and she agrees that the ability to hear well trumps other issues with this particular event. The cost of the rental is $400 plus $100 for cleaning and set up costs. They only expect us to take out the trash and not do anything more to clean up.

Quest

Need new site – Charis has indicated she has 3 potential sites she is looking into

Willa would like to cook feast

Rhiannon would like to write and run the Quest

Emeline to send email out to the list for autocrat

Medieval Seder May 5, 2012

Work is proceeding on the Seder. Charis and I conferred at length about the food. She is working on pricing out the menu we are considering and thinks she may be able to do it for $10/person. We’re going to revisit the site later this week to help her figure out what is possible to do in that kitchen. So far, the menu will include lamb and a chicken stew.

I’ve drawn up a basic budget. The costs are pretty basic: budget approved

That comes to $18/person, with a break even number of 90.

One issue to consider is how to make sure there is wine for the meal. The hall has no problem with us serving it, but we need to comply with SCA rules on the serving of alcohol. Decided on grape juice with participants to bring own wine if they wish.

I am continuing my work on the ceremony itself. I am also looking for an oven to use in making the matzah. It needs to go higher than the normal kitchen oven that can reach 525-550 degrees.

Contact Alexander re oven 550 degrees (Em)

Quest

Many Hands Make Light Work

Running barony, canton or an event like Twelfth Night, Mudthaw, Quest, or even Black Gryphon Inn takes a lot of work. There are many positions where volunteers are needed. From decorating the hall and setting up chairs, to cleaning up after the event, the more people who pitch in, the better the event is for everyone. Volunteers are needed to help with events and as officers. For more information on how you can help out, please contact Emeline Patterson: seneschal@settmourswamp.eastkingdom.org.
