THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF
THE BARONY OF SETTMOUR SWAMP

Greetings, Swampies, from Rhiannon and Alexander!

Last month we had a demo at Drew University's "Medieval Thing", organized for us by our Chatelaine, Edmund. We had about a dozen people come for the day and displayed sewing, embroidery, cooking, books, and had some fencing. There were several interested spectators and we hope to forge an ongoing relationship with the school's medieval club. All who attended had a wonderful day. Thanks, Edmund.

There are two more demos planned for this season, that are also at Ren/Medieval Faires. The first is the weekend of July 9-10 at the Red Mill Museum in Clinton. Details will be posted as soon as we get them, but for now, mark your calendars and plan to come out to sing, dance, display, spin, sew, cook, fight, fence and whatever you do best to show the public and entice new members to join in the fun. The second demo is August 27-28, at the Warren County 4H Ren Fair. We started helping out at this one last year. We had a great turnout and a lot of fun. The 4H-ers were very happy and grateful and are anxious to have us back, every year. Over night camping in period tents is allowed at both fairs and food will be available for sale and we can bring our own. Let Rhiannon know if you can come and what you will be doing.

April also saw the start up of the Pennsic Swamp Camp Tower Gate workshops for this year. The dates have been posted on the Swamp lists, but are generally the 2nd and 3rd weekends of each month from now until July. The workshops are being held at Erec le Clare's home, led by James of York, start around 10 am each day and all are welcome. We usually break for lunch, so it would be good to bring a contribution to share. We really are anxious to have this project finished by Pennsic this year, so please come help and join in the fun.

We will be travelling to Hartshorn-dale on May 7th, to witness the spectacle of Crown Tourney and are very interested in the outcome, since it could have a significant impact on (several) someone(s) in our Barony. Come with us and watch as events unfold and root for your favorites.

Quest is almost here and preparations are proceeding apace. Our Autocrats, Galefridus and Katherine, still have several jobs that need volunteers, so please contact them. See the website for details. Charis is planning a wonderful feast and Ceara is devising a clever Quest, but they both need help also. Come out and join us for the weekend. We always have a great time. Lots of activities going on but plenty of time to just relax with good friends.

Pennsic is also just around the corner. Please pre-reg if you want to camp with the Swamp and make sure you include all pertinent details when you fill out your Swamp Camp forms, such as tent dimensions and contact info. We are in need of several people to fill important positions such as Land Agent, Camp Mommy/Slum Lord, and Clean Up/Pack up Coordinator. All of these positions are exempt from the point system for tent placement and get prime real estate for camping. Sign up for the Swamp Camp yahoo group if you are not already on it, to keep informed and voice your suggestions, opinions and concerns.

We are in the process of planning several road trips for this spring and summer: The Cloisters- always at its best in the spring, but lovely any time of year; The Morgan Library for a special medieval clothing exhibit; and the Times Square Discovery Center for the Pompeii exhibit (and Harry Potter, as Alexander says, "for the kids"). Let us know if you would like to join us for any of these trips and what dates are good or not so good for you.

We hope to see all of you soon, but whatever you do, just remember to have fun.

Quest XXVIII: A Pocket Full of Posies

May 27th, 2011 - May 30th, 2011

Welcome to 14th century Florence, where plague is stalking the streets. Join us as we escape the city to our country retreat and seek to amuse ourselves.

Fighters, bring your armor and weapons. Fencers, bring your rapiers. Archers, bring your bows and arrows, and those who practice target throwing, bring your axes and knives. Artisans, bring your Arts and Sciences projects. The winners of these tournaments will be our Baronial Champions. The fighting, archery, and thrown weapons competitions will be held on Saturday. Fencing competition will be on Sunday. In addition, a brewing contest will be held on Saturday.

After a long day of events we will be having a great Italian feast on Saturday evening prepared by Lady Charis (menu to be announced). The feast will be limited to 100 gentles, so we ask you to please register early. After the feast we challenge you to gather around our fire pit and entertain us with your songs and stories. The best of all will be named our Bardic Champion.

For those looking to use their wits, we offer you a mighty quest based on Boccaccio's Decameron. It promises to be fun and challenging. The Quest will begin at 1 PM on Sunday. Childrens teams are welcome, but they must be accompanied by an adult.

We ask that you supervise your children at all times. Anyone under the age of eighteen who is not with a parent must be accompanied by an adult and must present a consent form signed by the parent listing the parents contact information. If a minor does not have a blue membership card, a minor waiver must be signed by the parent/legal guardian and presented at Troll. Copies of this waiver are available on-line at <http://www.sca.org/docs/waivers.html> and will be available at the event.

The camping area will be open from 4 PM Friday until 11:30 AM Monday. It is a damp site, which means beer, wine, and mead are permissible, but please no distilled liquor. Running water is not available on site, so please bring enough bottled water to last the weekend. Port-a-Johns, dumpsters for garbage, and bins for recyclables will also be provided. In addition to feast gear, you will need chairs and a table, or a blanket to sit on for the feast. There will be a large, central fire pit for socializing. Pets are welcome so long as they are leashed and cleaned up after.

There will be an Inn on site run by Rachel of Gwynedd. Several fast food establishments are a short distance away.

Reservations must include Mundane and SCA names for all persons included in the reservation, in addition to the ages of all the children included in your party. You will need to provide proof of membership for all members included in the reservation (photocopy of membership card or a copy of the cover of a recent Pikestaff with the member's name is acceptable). Also include contact information for the head of your party. The check or money order should be made out to SCA Inc., Barony of Settmour Swamp for the total amount of the reservation.

Merchants are most welcome, and there is no merchant fee. We do ask that you bring your own tables and PLEASE pre-register so we can allot you enough space. All Merchants must contact the Autocrat prior to the event. With your reservation please include full contact information as well as the name of your merchant booth.

Site Opens: 4 pm Friday

Site Closes: 12 noon Monday

Event Location

Neshanic Volunteer Fireman's Field
Corner of River Road & Elm Street
Neshanic Station, NJ 08853

Directions:

From 287: Take Exit 17 and merge onto Route 202/206S. Stay on 202/206S for 3.7 miles. Turn left at Chubb Way. It will turn into S. Branch Road. After 3.8 miles turn left at Pleasant Run Road (County Road 567). It will change its name to River Road. After almost a mile, turn right onto Elm Street and go over a white girder bridge. The site is on the right.

From the South: Use Route 202. It can be reached from Routes 31 and 29 from the south. Take Route 202 north. Turn right onto Pleasant Run Road (County Road 629). Continue to follow County Road 629. It becomes County Road 567 (River Road). About 3 miles from Route 202, you'll see the white girder bridge. Make a right turn onto the bridge (Elm Street). You'll see the site on the right.

From eastern NJ: Take Rt 287 exit 14B (a left-hand exit) onto Route 22 West for 3 miles. Take the exit for Routes 206/202 south, then keep to the left to take Route 202 over the Somerville Circle. After 5.4 miles, turn left at the traffic light onto Chubb Way. Then follow the directions for people coming from the North.

For those with GPS units, you can give the address as 200 Elm St., Neshanic Station, NJ.

University of Penn Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, March 11, 2011

Exhibit was well laid out and was very interesting

New Business:

Logistics

Emeline proposes a new office be created to be called Logistics. The barony would purchase a medium sized trailer (able to be pulled by a 6 cylinder car). The new position would be responsible for care and transport of the trailer, transport of inventory to and from Chamberlain for each Swamp event. Gudrun okay with storing trailer at her house.

Pennsic

Barony is registered for Pennsic and pre-registration is open.

New Practice Sites

- Jehannine is contacting Alexandria Park for possible use as new practice site
- Orlando and Charis have offered to have a practice at their house once a month if people are interested.
- Jehannine & Phillip are hosting archery and thrown weapons practice at their home every Sunday 1pm until whenever. Jehannine presented receipt for materials to make thrown weapons target for practices at their house ($16). Motion made to reimburse – all in favor except Owynn (opposed) and Edmund (abstained) – motion passed.

New Site for Quest

- Rhiannon and Jehannine have site they are currently looking at. Will set up time to view site after Quest is over. Orlando is checking on site in Voorhees that might meet our requirements.

Sinking Tower

Heraldry happens. I'm working on names and armory with a bunch of people, including Constanza. I have a job that will let me stay in the Barony. We had a Court at Mudthaw. I'm looking for volunteers to work on Court at Quest.

Fencing

All is well in fencing land. Mudthaw went off without a hitch. There were six participants in the Cut and Thrust tourney and about forty in and out of the Rapier Tourney. No injuries or issues.

Chronicler

The Mudpuppy should be going out today or tomorrow. Last minute addition for a new archery and thrown weapons practice delayed the final draft being completed.

Amended: Went out on April 4

MOI

The tourney at Mudthaw was again very well attended. We had 102 fighters once I finally closed the lists. (Most folks had no problem with my setting a cutoff time, but one gentle lost his temper and apparently was threatening to go get a baron to yell at me. I was told that he had driven down from New Hampshire, and was asked to make an exception, so I did.) One fighter had to drop out before the tourney began, due to armor problems, and another dropped out mid-tourney, having gotten a migraine.

Things went very smoothly, all the way down to the finals, where Duke Gregor and the mysterious Omega battled it out. Going into the fight, His Grace had one loss, while Omega was undefeated, so it was decided that if Gregor won the first bout, another would take place on more even ground, but if Omega won it, the tourney would be over. Gregor won, so another bout took place, which Omega won to the acclaim of all.

I would also like to thank Lord Erec for the amazing fireplace he built for us. It saved our lives.

Arts & Sciences

Many A&S activities occurred at Mudthaw.

We had a bread competition with 8 participants and the winner being Pani Magdelenu Gganska with her Toron style gingerbread.

For the brewing competition, there were 6 participants with the winner being Bronwen Rose of Greyling (B'Rose) with an Ale brewed with home grown hops.

For the A&S we had 24 participants, with 31 entries. The winner was Lady Eleanor atte Knolle with her Metal Bobbin Lace.

Karin Jacobsdottir organized and ran a challenge: Create a metal box or locket. The winner was Ruadnait ingen Ruaidhri .

We also had three display tables: a scroll display organized by Mistress Kayleigh McWhyte (Tyger Clerk of the Signet). Athena's Thimble guild organized an embroidery display (Mistress Cellach ingen Chernaig) and Lady Carowyn Silveroak and the Metalsmiths' guild.

Chatelaine

Drew U Demo April 10, 2011
Activities Presented: A&S: , Calligraphy and Illumination, Sewing and Embroidery, Cooking, Marshal (MIC – Christopher Lotano): Fencing
Members present in no particular order or title: Rhiannon, Ursula, Merlinia, Jessa, Mitchel, Edmund, Owynn, Orlando, Malcolm, Engracia, Sammy

The demo was from 10 AM to 4 PM. A number of vendors and renaissance festival groups were in attendance. Our group did an A&S and fencing presentation. We had a number of people come to our booth, discuss what our organization is about, and give them flyers. We did get some emails that will be followed-up in the next few days.

It looks as if we have high potential with this group. We may have an opportunity to work with each other running other demos and access to their facilities.

Webminister

In November, I did some research and evaluation, and decided that the only course I wanted to take was to completely rewrite the website: modern technologies, fresh layout/design, and a more user friendly data architecture. I thought I'd be finished by March 1st.

During the March Baronial Meeting, I decided a phased approach would make more sense here -- since I wanted to show that I'm not just sittin' around doing nothing ;)

Below are the phases ... so far. Obviously, nothing is live. All progress in done in a stage environment that, for convenience, I've placed online.

The original idea was to finish phase one and to suddenly bring it live with a "Suprise!" ... but if my staging area is at <http://sca.contralux.com>

1: Redesign 70% complete

- Take current information, and convey it in a different manner
- Complete overhaul of the site's look and feel
- Implementation of SCA Inc mandate for ADA compliancy
- Introduce more modern technologies to serve as the site code.

2: Re-Implementation

- Complete the use of more modern technologies, such as object oriented php in a MVC architecture, javascript libraries such as prototype and scriptalicious, and CSV files to store the actual data.

3: Expansion

- Introduce more functionality, such as integration with social networking websites (facebook)
- Create some user friendly manner to update the core data used by the website.

Many Hands Make Light Work

Running barony, canton or an event like Twelfth Night, Mudthaw, Quest, or even Black Gryphon Inn takes a lot of work. There are many positions where volunteers are needed. From decorating the hall and setting up chairs, to cleaning up after the event, the more people who pitch in, the better the event is for everyone. Volunteers are needed to help with event and as officers. For more information on how you can help out, please contact Emeline Patterson: seneschal@settmourswamp.eastkingdom.org.
