Unto the Good Gentles of Settmour Swamp do Baroness Rhiannon and Baron Alexander Send Fond Greetings.

We hope this missive finds you all well as we start to shift our activities to more indoor pursuits, now the weather is turning colder. Last month a small but fierce group of Baronial residents (Alexander, Stephie, Merlinia and Rhiannon) attacked the Pierpont Morgan Library and Museum to see what knowledge we could acquire and what plunder we could take home (lovely selection of books and gifts in the museum's shop). It was a successful campaign although the Illuminated Manuscripts, for which the museum is known, managed to elude us. Apparently, they are not one of the collections on permanent display anymore. Go figure! So, next trip, Philly Art Museum, St. Patrick's Cathedral? Suggestions?

October also saw a change in the usual second Wednesday night of the month Baronial Business meeting as it was held on the following Sunday at the Flemington practice site. If you would like to attend some of these meetings but Wednesday nights are not convenient for you let us or our Seneschal, Erec L'Clare know. We can try to schedule a few at different times so more of you can participate. We always welcome fresh ideas, different viewpoints and of course, new volunteers, if you so desire.

This month Rhiannon will be making Baronial favors at the Flemington practice on Sunday November 9th and would like you to join her. We would like all of you, who work and play in the Barony, to display your allegiance with a favor if you wish, but we do not have enough for everyone yet. If you complete three or more, you can keep one for yourself!

Reservations are selling out fast for Seraglio on November 15th in Flemington, so get yours in quickly. Space is limited. This event promises to have many interesting classes, contests and prizes, entertainment and of course a sumptuous feast so you don't want to be left out. If you are attending Seraglio please consider offering some of your time to help out at the event. Help is all most always needed setup, clean up or in the kitchen or at Troll. Contact the autocrat, Lady Morgaine, if you can offer any help. If you're staying to the end, Alexander is heading up the clean up crew and could use as many volunteers as possible.

The following week on November 22 we will be traveling to visit our good neighbors to the north in the Shire of Rusted Woodlands for the annual 100 Minutes War. Come join us as we cheer our Baronial fighters, fencers, archers and throwers and ooh and aah over the A&S displays and peruse the merchants. There is no feast this year but there will be royal court, we hope all residents of the Barony attending will stay and attend court with us with (hint, hint).

While gas prices are coming down, these are difficult and uncertain financial times and it would be wise to carpool whenever possible rather than miss a workshop or event. There are many activities going on all over the Barony and nearby every month and we need our "stress relievers" and the company of our friends now more than ever. We know we do.

Be well and happy,

Rhiannon and Alexander

Greetings to the Populace of Settmour Swamp from Lord Erec L'Claire, Baronial Seneschal

Mudthaw is our premier event, and a time when our great barony truly shines, and with it being less than six months away the planning is in full swing.

We were asked by their Majesties to host their Rattan Championships, and after much discussion we agreed and placed our bid, which was accepted. The Championship tourney will be integrated into our traditional Mudthaw Tournament. It is indeed a great honor to host such a worthy tournament.

Our Barony is also home to one of the current A&S Champions, Jehannine de Flandres, and so too the idea of including the next Kingdom Arts and Sciences Championships came up. Mudthaw will be doubly honored to host the finest our kingdom has to offer, not only on the list field, but also in the great hall!

There is much to do, and your help is needed! Our Autocrat is Owynn Greenwood, Charis will be head cook, please contact these good people to offer your services. It is through the good works of you, the subjects of the Barony and the East, that has gained our barony such reknown as it now enjoys and I thank you for all that you do!

You may also address your Seneschal at any time and for any reason.

Officer Reports Presented At the October Business Meeting

Arts & Sciences

Not much to report this month, there is a new embroidery group meeting on the 1st and 3rd Fridays of the month. This is graciously being run by Elizabeth McMahan. They are working on Settmour Swamp Favors. If any body has ideas please get them in touch with me. I'll be picking up the A&S materials sent from Elizabeth this week.

Captain of Archers

Archery Practices will continue as long as the weather holds. Only a few archers are showing up at this point. All of the marshals in the Barony attended one or both days of Carillion's Lakewood Renn Faire and helped out with marshaling and demos.

Upcoming Archery Events in the area: GGG in Carillion Oct 10-12.

Chamberlain

Nothing new to report

Chancellor Minor

No report

Chatelaine

I have nothing to report. Received one email requesting info and I replied to that.

Chirurgion

September was a quiet month; to the best of my knowledge, everyone in the Barony has stayed safe and healthy. Also to the best of my knowledge, none of our chirurgions served at events outside the Barony. Since it had been a few months since the last time, I issued another call for persons to consider serving as chirurgions. Master PhillipReed has agreed to serve as my deputy, at least until we get more chirurgions trained and warranted.

Chronicler

The October issue has been distributed. There are currently 97 members receiving the newsletter electronically and seven paper copies are being mailed. I approved one new electronic subscription request.

It give me great pleasure to report that for the second year in a row, The Mudpuppy was nominated for a William Blackfox Award. This is the Society wide award that recognizes excellence in newsletters in a variety of categories. This year the nomination was for Best Regular Feature - "Focus on the Arts". I share this recognition with our Mistress of Arts & Sciences, Lady Elisabeth Eleanor Lovell.

Exchequer

I won't have the statement until the eighth, at the earliest. Right now, you know as much as I do.

Herald

No report

Knight Marshall

Practices continue at Nutley and Flemington. No injuries or untoward occurrences have been reported. On September 23rd, at Des Mares School in Flemington, Sir Jan Janowitz Bogdanski and Lord Aodhan O'Dunlaing gave a demonstration of historical aspects of SCA Heavy Weapons fighting to the Cub Scout pack sponsored by St. Pauls Church. It was well received. Another demonstration is scheduled for the combined Cub Scout and Weblo Campout on October 11th at Round Valley.

Mistress of Lists

Nothing to report.

Marshall of Fence

Thursday fencing practices continue at Maestro Fencing in Somerville (217 W. Main St., Somerville, NJ 08876). The site owners have raised our rent as of October 1st. Due to the increase in cost, the new fee is $5 per person per practice.

Settmour's fencers continue to shine throughout the kingdom, displaying their skill and valor at events in Ostgardr, Carillion and beyond. As the fall turns to winter, we are preparing ourselves for competition at 100 Minutes War, where I will be running fencing for our neighboring shire; Twelfth Night where fencing is being run by our own Don Malcolm Bowman; and King & Queen's Rapier Championships, rumored to be in Bhakail.

Barony of Settmour Swamp
Flemington, NJ

"I do not choose to flee. Those who have worn the crown should never survive its loss. Never shall I see the day when I am not saluted as empress. If you mean to flee, Caesar, well and good. You have the money, the ships are ready, the sea is open. As for me, I shall stay."

----Empress Theodora, 532, CE

You have come for a Feast, and a Sumptuous Feast you shall have, but at this Circus, just as at the one in 532 CE Constantinople, you shall have to answer the question: Are you a Blue or are you a Green? Which side do you support? We shall find out during the feast! Keeping in mind the bounds of propriety and taste, please have insults, invectives and other clever bits at the ready to hurl in order to show your opponents that YOUR side has the right of it! Perhaps your allegiance shall even be tested beforehand?

Classes will be held during the day beginning at 1:00 PM and ending at 5:00 PM. Content of the classes will be determined by those who teach; if you would like to teach, please e-mail Lady Rummi at Usagi636@aol.com. Ideally classes will be divided into one-hour spots, but that depends upon the actual classes. If you need more time, just let us know; if your class is shorter, that's fine, too.

The bountiful Byzantine Feast shall be orchestrated by the Lady Siobna ap Prechainn and seating is limited to 80 people.

Seating for the Feast shall be, as tradition dictates, both Eastern and Western-Style. If you know your preference, please send it in with your reservation so we know how many tables to set up, thank you! Bring your carpets and cushions upon which to sit, should you decide to sit Eastern style; they may also be useful to you throughout the day for your comfort.

Byzantine A&S Contest: Begin your Projects anon! Judges to include, of course, the Baron and Baroness, the Mistress of Arts and Sciences, Lady Elisabeth Eleanor Lovell, and others to be named later. It could even be YOU! Projects could have a Byzantine bent, should the Muses thus strike you but all projects will be welcomed!

Children's Activities shall be arranged with the Officer of the Chancellors Minor.

Merchants are welcome and for the small price of $5, you may use one of our tables. There is room for at least 10 merchants but space is limited. If you need more than one table, please bring your own second table. Please contact Lady Gabrielle an Ruadh at chkmatekng2@aol.com.

Event Schedule:

12:00 Noon – Troll Opens

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM - Classes and/or lolling about, nibbling on noshes, playing instruments, dancing, talking, socializing with friends and those who might so become.

6:00 PM - Feast, socializing, wondrous performances with which to thrill's one's eyes, ears and any other available senses. Court at their Excellencies discretion, and other goings-on of general merriment and happiness. Unlike at that Circus in 532, there shan't be a riot but in the Spirit thereof, there shall be a friendly rivalry betwixt the Blues and the Greens

10:00 PM - After that we shall clean-up

11:00 PM – Depart the building. One need not return to one's home, but one may not tarry here!
