THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE BARONY OF SETTMOUR SWAMP

Letter From The Coronets — Quest XXX Cancelled

Most honored lords, ladies, and all such gentles of Settmour Swamp unto these letters come, greetings.

To say that we are saddened that many factors have led to the decision that Quest be cancelled at this time would be an understatement. We first would like to applaud the efforts of our officers in their attempts to secure a site for Quest at so short of notice, and support their decisions regarding the canceling of Quest at this time to allow the word to be spread in a timely fashion. While we were unable to procure a sufficient site for this coming Memorial Day weekend, we have found some potential new sites around our Barony that would serve well. In light of this, we will be asking the populace to help us, we need to create new relationships with potential new sites and we need people willing to play a part in running events. We will be sending out pleas to create catalogues of promising new event sites, and to learn of the interests of our populace, so please support these efforts that we can hear what you want in moving forward.

In lighter news, we did journey to our neighbors the Crown Province of Ostgardr, and did lay witness to the victory of Earl Kenric aet Essex and Countess Avelina Keyes who are now our Prince and Princess. We were well pleased to see many of you there, and noted many entrants into the list from this mighty Barony: Tribune Omega Aurelius Serpentius for Duchess Roxane Farabi Shahzadeh, Pan (Sir) Jan Janowicz Bodanski for Herrin (Lady) Rosamund von Schwyz, Syr Culann mac Cianain for Baroness Edana inghean Aluinn mac Kinnon, our Knight Marshal Brennan mac Fearghus for Caoilfhionn inghean Fhaolain, Lord William MacCrimmon for Lady Astrid Olfasdotter, Lord Turi MacKinnon for Marguerite De Sainte Nazaire, Lord Ionness Aurelius Serpentius for Lady Ro Honig von Sommerfeldt, and Lord Hartmann Foscari da Ferrara for Lady Violet Coleson. Vivats to these noble gentles.

We would also like to thank those of you who came to the demo at Drew University, it was a lovely day on the campus with good friends. Food, spinning, weaving, armor, and fencing were some of the skills we presented to the public. Thank you Lord Malcom Bowman for organizing this.

In looking forward to upcoming events, Jehannine will be traveling to AEthelmearc War Camp for the weekend of May 17th and then the weekend of May 31st we will be attending the Southern Region War Camp & King and Queen's Archery Champions and we hope you will join us and help prepare for the upcoming war. King Gregor has been forging alliances with Kingdoms near and far to entertain our adversaries at the Pennsic War, which begins with Land Grab on July 19th.

We want to hear about everything you and your household is working on.

In addition we are very interested in seeing what projects you are working on, whether it is the first suit of armor you are putting together, a tourney you fought or on the other end of the spectrum some thread you made with a drop spindle.

The only way to increase the interest in our arts is to show them to our own members and the public in demos. If you have any questions please email the Chronicler.

If you are looking to submit content to the Mudpuppy for consideration of inclusion for publication.

Please read over the submission release requirements on the next page. These are requirements that we are held to by the east Kingdom of the Society for Creative Anachronism, the Corporate office of the Society of Creative Anachronism.

Volunteer For An Officer Position

Current positions individuals may volunteer for: Thrown Weapons & Chancellors Minor.

Many Hands Make Light Work

Running a barony, canton or an event such as: Twelfth Night, Mudthaw, Quest, or even Black Gryphon Inn takes a lot of work. There are many positions where volunteers are needed. From decorating the hall and setting up chairs, to cleaning up after the event, the more people who pitch in, the better the event is for everyone. Volunteers are needed to help with events and as officers.
